LIS 085

Want to learn how to be a better researcher? Want to know how to use all the resources we have to offer? Sign up for LIS 085, a 2-unit, 8-week online course starting in the Fall! Check the online Fall class schedule for more information.

Book Sale

We are selling old textbooks, manuals, and more on numerous subjects including the sciences, history, and social studies. Swing by the Library and see what treasures you can find! For a limited time only, everything is half off!

New eBooks!

American Eras Primary Sources Vol. 5: Development of a Nation documents the years 1783-1815, the dramatic period in American history when the federal government and the U.S. Constitution were established.

Scholarships, Fellowships, and Loans profiles nearly 7,500 scholarships, fellowships, loans, internships, work study, and more!

These titles are available in the Gale Virtual Reference Library link on our website.

Featured Database

The Testing & Education Reference Center contains practice tests and study materials for standardized tests such as the GRE, MCAT, and NCLEX-PN, information on schools, a scholarship search tool, helpful career preparation tools, and a resume builder.

Faculty Book Requests

We are accepting book suggestions from faculty to augment our print collection. If you have any titles that you feel the Library should own to support your curriculum, please fill out a request form located on the "For Faculty" page of our website.
